“ Dear Barb: My mother-in-law said you called with this sad news of Dianne's death. Our whole family was devastated to learn this news. We new Dianne better than most and knew the kind and loving heart she had. She was a beautiful girl, both inside and out. I was so glad when she reached out to me when she was first diagnosed and I really thought she was going to make it. I guess I was naive. Poor girl, she did not deserve to go this way. We will always remember the kindness she extended to everyone in our family. We loved her and the world is a little darked with the loss of this lovely, decent, and good person. I don't understand it. She had nothing but goodness to offer. I know she is in heaven smiling down on us and cuddling some puppies! She loved them so much!! Please email me and I will give you my cell so we can talk: susangdunn@gmail.com. Love to all the family. xoxo Suzy

“ We had never met, but enjoyed talking with her on Facebook. I learned a lot about her, and found that she was a very unique person. She had a great sense of humor, loved the outdoors, and was strong and independent. She took her cancer diagnosis with the determination to beat it. She fought hard, very hard... I have nothing but love and prayers for you and your family.....I pray that God will give you peace in your hearts each time you think only of the good memories. She is released from her pain, and will now dance and laugh with the angels. Rest in peace, my friend. Bonita Rose

“ Barbara D and I were coworkers for approximately twelve years. Over the years we became close friends, where we gave each other emotional support when needed. we encouraged each other to exercise and would go for long jogs and walks, and just enjoy each others company. Sometimes she would forget her hair or dental appointments. We both like to eat chinese food and chocolate, and she liked shrimp, wings, brownies, etc. I cannot forget the time she pepper sprayed herself. She would work on her own time without pay to help me catch up at work from time to time. She was a very kind and giving person. She also introduced me to a few nice fishing spots.

When she left kaiser, she was very happy to be with her family, who loved and cared for her. She always talked about her cat, crashie, and she enjoyed life to the fullest. I cant express how much I will miss Barbara D, but I have a lot of good memories to relive. Thank you for everything.
