

William LaFitte Kerr

January 9, 1956 - November 12, 2018

William “Billy” Kerr entered into eternal rest on Monday, Nov. 12, 2018. He was born on January 9, 1956, in Charleston, South Carolina. The relatives and friends of Billy Kerr are invited to attend a memorial service at 12 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 15, 2018, at St. Mary's Catholic Church, 89 Hasell St, Charleston, SC 29401. A graveside burial will follow at Riverview Memorial Park Cemetery. Always someone who marched to the beat of his own drum, Billy was an avid fan of old movies, comic books and big band music. Billy graduated from Bishop England High School in 1975 where he played drums in the school band. He worked for 25 years alongside his parents in the Charleston Market from 1978 to 2003. He was a devout Catholic who adored his 12 nieces and nephews as well as his two great nephews and great niece. He is preceded in death by his loving parents Basil J. Kerr, Sr. and Jeanne Ray Kerr. He is survived by his five siblings and their spouses: Basil J. Kerr, Jr., Suzanne Reed (Brian), Brian Kerr (Tammara), David Kerr (Dawn), and Christopher Kerr (Anna).

In lieu of flowers the family requests donations be made to Hospice of Charleston. Arrangements in care of Charleston Cremation Center and Funeral Home.

“ Dear Suzanne, Basil and Brian,

I am so sorry for the loss of your brother, Billy. May you find comfort in knowing that Billy is now in the presence of God, and the joy he must be experiencing there. It is so much harder on those left behind.

I am praying for you and your families.

Love,
Robin Herron

“ Suzanne, Basil, and Brian - my deepest condolences on the loss of your brother, Billy. I remember him well from my days marching in the Bishop England band. He used to tease me because I was so short. I also recall talking with him many times as I strolled through the downtown Market with my family. He was always eager to say hi and to offer help with a purchase.

May he Rest In Peace.
